Welcome

Welcome back everyone!

I hope you've all had a lovely, restful half term despite the rainy weather! Please see attached all upcoming events and dates.

Next Thursday 5th March is World Book Day. This has been somewhat of a tradition at Halsnead and often proves to be a real celebration of reading. Your children can dress up as one of their favourite characters from their book and in the afternoon you will get the opportunity to visit our Reading Retreat, where you can read with your child.
