7TH MAY 2020

NEWSLETTER

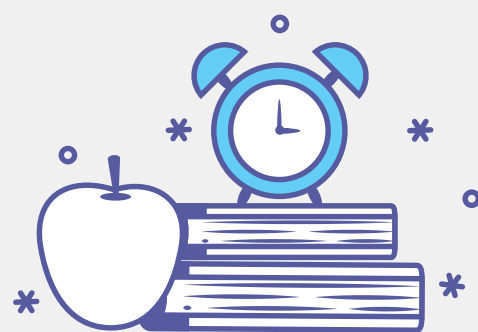

Welcome

This week we delivered our Home Learning Packs to you. Thank you to all the staff who helped organise, print and distribute the packs safely. Remember if you have any questions at all about the learning activities, please do not hesitate to contact your child's teacher, they will be happy to help. We will be collecting these packs and delivering the next ones this Monday coming, 11th May, so please leave the completed packs outside your door. This weekend is the May Bank Holiday. Please continue to follow the Government's guidance, enjoy it together as a family, stay safe and look after yourselves. Thank you again for your continued support and we wish all our families well.

Mr Catt

Our New Deputy Head

We wanted to introduce our new Deputy Head, Mr Catt. He has worked in another school in Knowsley for many years and is a fantastic teacher. He loves teaching all year groups and all subjects, Mr Catt has been in school already and met some of our key worker children and is really looking forward to meeting all of you as soon as he can. He would love to hear from you! You can email him deputyhead@halsnead.co.uk or share your wonderful work on Twitter by tweeting @halsnead_deputy

Last Week's Wordsearch Solution

All answers will be revealed next week!

Year 6: Lee I

"Lee has been fully engaged in the learning that has been taking place at home and always seeking out other work that he could try. He has learned a lot about money but I have been most impressed with Lee's independent research and notes from WW2! I am so proud of your hard work Lee. Keep it up!"

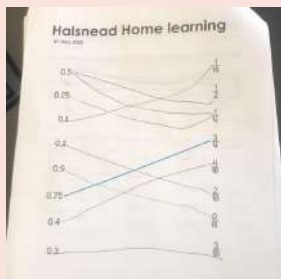

Nursery: Poppy I

"Well done Poppy for completing various Maths challenges whilst having so much fun!"

Year 5: Lilly-Rose E

"For making excellent choices at home to concentrate and push yourself to focus and learn. We are all so proud of you!"

ASPIRATION AWARD
Who has worked especially hard this week?

Reception: Imogen O

"This weeks Aspiration Award goes to Imogen for her continuous effort at home in all areas of learning! Keeping up to date with Tapestry and sending lots of photographs of all the fun activities she has been doing!"

Year 1: Nicole C

"For completing her challenges with a big smile on her face. Nicole has also used different resources to help with her maths work."

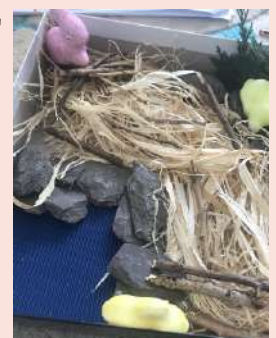

Year 4: Will T

"Every single day, Will puts a huge amount of thought and effort into his home learning. His presentation is always outstanding and his desire to continue to learn is inspirational!"

Year 2: Isabella D

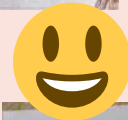

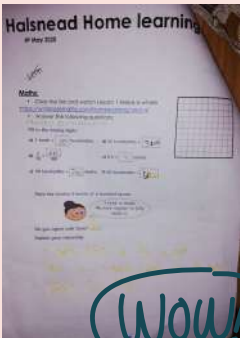

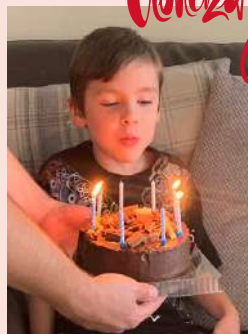

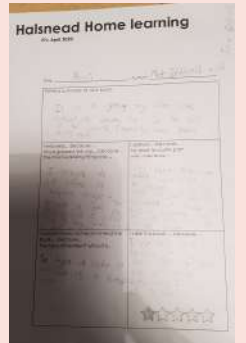

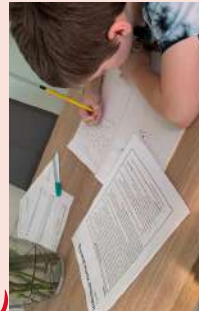

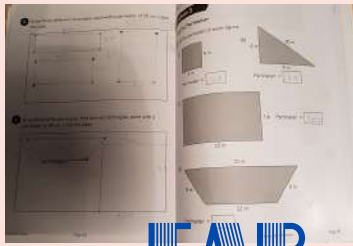

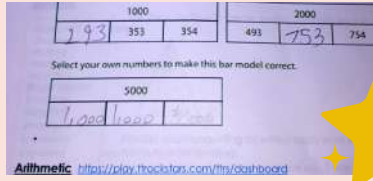

"For continuing to complete all her tasks and more. She created a fantastic habitat for a rabbit!"

Year 3: Annabelle B

"For being as excellent at learning at home as she is in school! A shining example of Andy Aspiration."
